Sunrise in Jerusalem - By Alex Levin

The name of the 11th month on the Jewish calendar, Av, literally means “father.” It is customary to add the name “Menachem,” which means “comforter” or “consoler”—so Menachem Av.

Av is the month in which both Temples were destroyed and many other tragedies occurred in Jewish history. At this time, it is easy for us to feel deserted, lost and alone, yet we are taught that our Father in heaven is there to comfort and console us.

Av on one hand includes a “low point” on the Jewish calendar—the Ninth of Av, the day of the sin of the spies, and the destruction of both the First and Second Temples in Jerusalem. On the other hand, it also incorporates a “high point”: the 15th of Av, a day designated for finding one’s predestined soulmate, is considered one of the happiest days on the Jewish calendar.

May we speedily merit the ultimate redemption, when days of sorrow will be turned to days of joy, and we will celebrate once again in our holy Temple in Jerusalem.

“The Summer of Opportunity”

The Hebrew calendar presents us with a most unusual situation. Ordinarily the month of September is the month of the Yamim Noraim, the High Holy Days. This year however the month of September coincides with Elul, the month that immediately precedes the High Holy Days when we begin the daily sounding of the Shofar. August therefore is quieter than it normally is for the Jewish people. It is not a time of frantic preparation for the holiest days of the year and in that way it presents us with an opportunity.

This coming August we should reserve some time and space to quietly contemplate and reflect upon what we would like to achieve in the coming year. This should lead us to think about the past year and what has troubled us as a nation. It seems to me that one of the greatest concerns we might have in the coming year is the level and frequency of the violent episodes that we have witnessed in our nation in the past year combined with inflammatory rhetoric from all sides. Orlando, Dallas, and Baton Rouge, to name only the most recent tragedies, serve to remind us of the challenges that we presently face as citizens of a civilized nation living under the rule of law. How can we explain this excessive violence in our nation and in the world?

If we look to our biblical past we might be reminded of the fact that times of great unrest, fear and anxiety are frequently responded to with inflammatory episodes and violence. Whether it was Moses' striking of the rock, the rebellion of Korah or the divine plague that crippled the multitude of grumbling Israelites, those who wandered the wilderness experienced episode upon episode of excessive violence and tumultuous events. In the end, however, this did not deter them from making it to the Promised Land. Ultimately their faith in God and in the better nature of humanity's potential prevailed.

In the same regard, if we are to endure this time of “wilderness,” this time of great anxiety that we are presently experiencing in our nation we too must have faith that our better natures shall prevail in the end. We must harbor a belief that our God expects us all to be better and to try harder to live as one unified nation. If we can open our hearts and minds to the concerns of others and if we can stop looking at our neighbors as enemies then we too can take a step towards peace and fellowship. Times of anxiety and fear demand unity rather than dissension. We need open hearts not closed minds. Let us pray that the coming year will present us all with such an opportunity.

Adult Education and Program Highlights

It's hard to believe the summer is half gone and we are looking at information about the High Holy Days. With the fall come an increased number of activities and more opportunity to be involved in them. Adult Education classes continue to flourish at Beth Ohr and we invite you to choose as many classes as you would like to attend.

Rabbi Mishkin's classes will continue on Tuesdays and Thursday mornings. His morning and evening class schedule can be found in our monthly newsletters, in e-mails, in our weekly Shabbat booklets that are available in the synagogue sanctuary, and on the Sisterhood calendar.

His every-other-Tuesday evening classes of Practices and Customs 2.0 will begin this month as the class learns about the theology and philosophy of the various movements in Judaism while studying prayer books from each denomination.

On alternate weeks, Rabbi Mishkin will continue his study of Talmud, "Swim in the Sea of the Talmud." This class is also offered on Thursday mornings at 9:30. The Rabbi's book discussion class, reviewing the book Not in G-d's Name, continues every other Tuesday morning.

The Conversational Spanish class will resume on September 15. Terrie Polovsky assures me that anyone can join at any time. The class is held every Wednesday morning at 11:00 a.m.

The Hebrew Reading class will also continue, but with a twist. If you read Hebrew but would like to become more fluent, or if you would like to come practice reading while we discuss some of the High Holiday prayers, come to our HEBREW CRASH COURSE - HIGH HOLY DAY VERSION. This will be a six-week session concentrating on reading and discussing some of the most well-known prayers from Rosh HaShana and Yom Kippur. We will begin on Thursday, September 8.

Once we have finished with this session, we will continue the Hebrew Reading/Discussion class that allows you to practice and brush up on your Hebrew while discussing the meanings of prayers from our Shabbat service, gaining some knowledge of the way Hebrew is constructed, learning some vocabulary, and just having a good time. Classes at 11 a.m. Thursdays

Federation Accepts Teen Applicants for a New J Team Class

The Jewish Federation in the Heart of New Jersey is accepting applications for the 2016-2017 J Team Teen Philanthropy program. A select group of 9th-12th grade students meet monthly throughout the school year to learn about philanthropy, meet representatives of non-profit agencies, engage in community service and make charitable donations - all with a focus on core Jewish values of giving. The teamwork approach to philanthropic giving makes this program a win-win for our community's teens and nonprofit agencies and gives teens the tools to begin a life of giving.

J Teamers each make a donation of $125 and use the knowledge they acquire to propose and select organizations to fund. At the end of the year, team members decide together which programs will receive funding, and how that money is allocated to those programs.

The program is hosted by the Jewish Federation in the Heart of New Jersey. Applications and information can be found at www.jewishheartnj.org/teens. Please direct all inquiries to Linda Benish, J Team Coordinator, at lindab@jewishheartnj.org or 732-588-1816. To learn how you can help support or sponsor this program, contact Laura Safran, Director, Community Impact at lauras@jewishheartnj.org

It's Sukkot in the Summer!

Beginning with Sukkot 2016 we will have a new Sukkah that will comfortably seat 40+ people for our annual "Chicken-in-the-Coop" celebration.

The Sukkah structure has been received and construction will be completed this summer. It's going to be permanently located in the fenced-in area adjacent the back entrance for easy access to the kitchen and the sanctuary using the stairs or elevator.

And starting this year, we'll only need to attach new woven bamboo S'chach mats to the roof, new woven wall screens and decorate in order to complete the Sukkah for celebration of the holiday. For anyone interested, waterproof decorative banners are also available for purchase.

You, your children, grandchildren and even great grandchildren have an opportunity to participate in this happy project by making a donation (through the office) in any amount to help defray the cost of the new Sukkah.
