Tisha B'Av primarily commemorates the destruction of the first and second Temples, both of which were destroyed on the ninth of Av (the first by the Babylonians in 586 B.C.E.; the second by the Romans in 70 C.E.).

Although this holiday is primarily meant to commemorate the destruction of the Temple, it is appropriate to consider on this day the many other tragedies of the Jewish people, many of which occurred on this day, most notably the expulsion of the Jews from Spain in 1492 and from England in 1290.<sup>1</sup>

Some try to connect the Tisha B'Av to Kristallnacht, which began on the 9th of November, or to the 9/11 attacks on the World Trade Center. This is stretching the point a bit too far. Setting aside the question of whether you can find significance in secular dates that have the same numbers as significant Hebrew dates, or whether you can swap day and month, there is a much more serious problem: Av is not the 11th month of the Jewish calendar. This is clear from the biblical quotes above, which talk about Av as the 5th month. So where did people get the idea that Av is the 11th month? Probably by counting from Tishri, the month of Rosh Hashanah, the Jewish New Year. But the Torah is very clear that months are counted from Nissan, not Tishri.

Rabbi's Message

A Summer Reading List for the Intellectually Curious”

As the summer begins I thought that it might be useful to compile a list of books that would make both great summer reading and also center around topics of Jewish interest and other important topics. This list is merely my suggestion of possible avenues of study and learning about Judaism, Jewish topics of interest, and a couple of books on important social issues for your reading pleasure. Some of these books I have already read. Others I plan on delving into during the quieter months of July and August. Although I am well aware of how early the High Holidays fall this year. So to my congregants and friends, happy reading!

1. A History of Judaism - by Martin Goodman - this is a phenomenal one-volume history of Judaism beginning with Josephus and concluding with themes such as Jewish Renewal. It is readable and relies upon the most up-to-date scholarship.
2. If All the Seas Were Ink - by Ilana Kurshan - a young woman rebounds from a painful divorce through the communal study of Daf Yomi, the daily study of Talmud. Ms. Kurshan provides a courageous voice that could be helpful for anyone struggling to reinvent their life following a traumatic event. She also shares an insightful understanding of the Talmud as an eternal source of Jewish wisdom.
3. Hillbilly Elegy - by J.D. Vance - this book has nothing to do with Judaism yet everything to do with life as the author tells his own story of struggle from areas of affliction that strike so many of the impoverished of our nation: abuse, alcoholism, poverty and trauma so characteristic of their part of America. With piercing honesty Vance shows how he, himself, still carries around the demons of his chaotic family history.
4. Rise and Kill First; The Secret History of Israel's Targeted Assassinations by Ronen Bergman - a wonderful read on the curious nature of Israeli intelligence. Ronen Bergman recounts the history of Israel's targeted killings and leaves few secrets in the closet. Reviewed as a John le Carre spy thriller with endnotes. Bergman also grapples with the hard questions of this kind of warfare.
5. Einstein and the Rabbi - by Naomi Levy - a book about the discovery of a mysterious letter authored by Albert Einstein providing advice and understanding and hope for a young rabbi coping with the greatest of tragedies and the modern search for the soul.
6. The World of Yesterday - by Stefan Zweig - a profoundly important memoir by one of the greatest European authors of the twentieth century. Stefan Zweig draws a vivid and intimate account of life and travels through Vienna, Paris, Berlin and London as they go through their darkest hours. A gorgeously written book full of pathos and insightful ideas about the dangers of the authoritarian mind of Europe in the twentieth century.

Those are just a few suggestions that should keep you busy and well informed. Have a wonderful summer of reading and learning!

Tisha B'Av is the culmination of a three week period of increasing mourning, beginning with the fast of the 17th of Tammuz, which commemorates the first breach in the walls of Jerusalem, before the First Temple was destroyed. During this three week period weddings and other parties are not permitted and people refrain from cutting their hair. From the first to the ninth of Av, it is customary to refrain from eating meat or drinking wine (except on the Shabbat) and from wearing new clothing

The restrictions on Tisha B'Av are similar to those on Yom Kippur: to refrain from eating and drinking (even water); washing, bathing, shaving or wearing cosmetics; wearing leather shoes; engaging in sexual relations; and studying Torah. Work in the ordinary sense of the word [rather than the Shabbat sense] is also restricted. People who are ill need not fast on this day. Many of the traditional mourning practices are observed: people refrain from smiles, laughter and idle conversation, and sit on low stools.

In synagogue, the book of Lamentations is read and mourning prayers are recited. The ark (cabinet where the Torah is kept) is draped in black.

Tisha B'Av is never observed on Shabbat. If the 9th of Av falls on a Saturday, the fast is postponed until the 10th of Av.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

For those of you who attended the Gala Brunch for Old Bridge Mayor Owen Henry, I am sure you will agree with me that it was a great success. For those who could not attend you really missed something very special. Please support the businesses that took ads and mention that you saw their ad in the Journal.

I want to take this opportunity to thank everyone associated with the Brunch. Your hard work really showed and was appreciated.

For those who did not attend the following are my comments presented at the Brunch.

As President of Congregation Beth Ohr it gives me great pleasure to welcome everyone today as we honor Old Bridge Mayor Owen Henry.

Mayor Henry is no stranger to us as he has made it a point of not only attending Synagogue functions but including us in various Township activities. His leadership has lead to Old Bridge being rated as one of the safest cities in America making it a great place to bring up our children as most of you know.

Among the many things the Mayor has focused on is the reduction of pollution in Old Bridge. He has formed what is known as a "clean team" that works via public education and litter removal projects to improve the environment.

Under his leadership Old Bridge continues to offer extensive sports programs for children, beautiful parks for families and an environment conducive to a very diverse population. Old Bridge is also a great environment for business as shown by the recent expansion of the Raritan Bay Hospital off Route 18.

Best wishes, Mayor Henry.

BETH OHR CEMETERY

Congregation Beth Ohr owns and operates a cemetery which is located on Ernston Road in Sayreville. The cemetery is a non-profit entity using existing funds and fundraising as its source of operating revenues. Membership in Beth Ohr entitles each congregant to one individual plot which must be reserved at a cost of $50. All other costs such as perpetual care, administrative fee, funeral, plot opening, headstone, etc. are borne by the family of the deceased. Please call Phyllis Greenberg in the office at 732-257-1523 for further details.

July Yahrzeits

The actual date that the Yahrzeit is observed is to the right of the name. It is customary to light a memorial candle on the eve of this date and to give tzedakah in memory of the Yahrzeit. One should recite the Mourner's Kaddish at services the evening before as well as the day of the Yahrzeit. Please call Phyllis in the Synagogue office at 732-257-1523, if you need information about the schedule of worship. The name of your departed will be read at the Friday evening and Shabbat morning services, the week before the Yahrzeit date which are represented by the dates in the columns which are in bold print.

Congregation Beth Ohr has partnered with Community Recycling and their ShoeBox Recycling program. Together we are on a mission to help promote the importance of shoe recycling while raising funds to help further our efforts. ShoeBox Recycling is easy, engaging and rewarding for everyone involved.

Participating is simple. We are collecting gently used shoes for reuse, meaning all the shoes we recycle as a group are destined for another home. From South America and Africa to areas right here in the United States, our ShoeBox Recycling efforts will go to help people and communities in over 50 countries.

And what's even better is the many ways that our community benefits as well. Not only will your recycled shoes help Congregation Beth Ohr raise funds, it will also help keep usable shoes out of our local landfills. ShoeBox Recycling also gives us a chance to connect with the people and places that receive our recycled shoes. By writing a SoleMate Note to include with your shoes, you can let their new owner know about where they came from, what they were used for, or even any special memories attached to them. In return, they can write back to us and we can make a SoleMate connection.

So start cleaning out your closets and start looking under your bed for gently used shoes. Every pair you recycle means extra funds for us, less landfill waste and the potential to connect us to a SoleMate!

For more information contact Allan Benish at abenish@aol.com and check out Community Recycling online at www.communityrecycling.biz.

You can drop off your shoes at the synagogue and place them in the box labeled "SHOES" in the lobby during regular office hour of 9:00AM to 3:00PM.
