“ The Great Jewish Read Continues!”

As we begin a new year I wanted to offer the members of our congregation an invitation. For the last four years I have facilitated a “Book Discussion Group.” We meet on alternative Tuesday mornings at 11 o’clock and we have delved into many fascinating books ranging from historical overviews to a comical appraisal of life in Israel. This year I asked the group to help me select the next book we would discuss. We had several good choices, among them a new book on the history of divisiveness in American Judaism by Steven Weisman titled, The Chosen Wars, a memoir by the intellectual Stefan Zweig, The World of Yesterday, and reflections of life during the Shoah, Hasidic Tales of the Holocaust. Any of these books would certainly command our attention and perhaps we will get to them in the future. However the group decided upon a unique book that caught my interest last year when it was first published.

The book is titled, If All the Seas Were Ink, by Ilana Kurshan. Ms. Kurshan, in a remarkable and reflective memoir, shares her story of struggle, challenge and, ultimately triumph, as she recounts her experience alone in Jerusalem following a painful divorce. Interestingly enough, she found solace from her loneliness through joining, quite literally, the world’s largest book club, learning daf yomi, Hebrew for “daily page” of the Talmud.

The Talmud is a book of rabbinic teachings spanning about 500 years and is the basis for all the codes of Jewish law. A literary editor by profession, attuned with an ear for poetry and literature, Kurshan discovered both a community and a passionate attachment to its several thousand pages. Her book is a poignant memoir as well as a brilliant introduction to the world of the Talmud and its rabbis and will leave the reader moved, enlightened and intellectually challenged. We already have a number of students in our group, but if you find any of this of interest, please let me or Phyllis know. I will gladly order you a copy of the book and welcome you to our wonderful group of literary seekers. Our next class meets on November 6th and you are most welcome.

President's Message

This is a very busy time at the Synagogue. Following a very successful Sukkah Brunch thanks to Linda Benish and her faithful helpers, the various adult education programs are now in full swing. They are:

Rabbi's Book Discussion (Rabbi Mishkin)
Pirkei Avot (Rabbi Mishkin)
Talmud Class (Rabbi Mishkin)
Jewish Prayer (Linda Benish)
Jewish Humor (Stan Perlman)

Just check the Newsletter and Weekly Announcements for the days and times of each class.

The weekend of November 2nd is our Scholar in Residence Shabbat. We are very fortunate to have Rabbi Seth Frisch join us for services Friday night and Saturday morning.

On Sunday, November 11th at 2pm is our 3rd annual Global Day of Jewish Learning held at the East Brunswick Library. The feedback from the previous ones has been outstanding. I would recommend you get there early as it gets very crowded.

All of the above is due to the outstanding work by our Programming Chairperson and the few who volunteer to help. If this is to continue in the future, we need you to step up to help run some of the programs.

Jewish Humor – Wednesday 10:00 beginning October 10.

Teacher: Stan Perlman

The course on Jewish Humor will use the book Jewish Humor: What the Best Jewish Jokes Say About the Jews by Rabbi Joseph Telushkin as its main source. We will discuss the aspects of our humor as it relates to Jewish character, family love and torments, relations with God, etc.

Throughout history humor often relates our feelings and beliefs towards life and our neighbors. We will have deep discussions about Judaism and have many laughs along the way.

Jewish Prayer – Linda Benish – Thursday 10:30 beginning October 11

Join me in a discussion based on topics such as why we pray, the different kinds of prayer, formal and informal ways of praying, and the importance of prayer in one's life. We will talk about the meaning of many of the prayers we read at services and discover the logic, structure and beauty of the services we attend.

Rabbi Mishkin will be continuing his wonderful variety of classes –

The cemetery is a non-profit entity using existing funds and fundraising as its source of operating revenues. Membership in Beth Ohr entitles each congregant to one individual plot which must be reserved at a cost of $50. All other costs such as perpetual care, administrative fee, funeral, plot opening, headstone, etc. are borne by the family of the deceased. Please call Phyllis Greenberg in the office at 732-257-1523 for further details.

Congregation Beth Ohr has partnered with Community Recycling and their ShoeBox Recycling program. Together we are on a mission to help promote the importance of shoe recycling while raising funds to help further our efforts. ShoeBox Recycling is easy, engaging and rewarding for everyone involved.

Participating is simple. We are collecting gently used shoes for reuse, meaning all the shoes we recycle as a group are destined for another home. From South America and Africa to areas right here in the United States, our ShoeBox Recycling efforts will go to help people and communities in over 50 countries.

And what's even better is the many ways that our community benefits as well. Not only will your recycled shoes help Congregation Beth Ohr raise funds, it will also help keep usable shoes out of our local landfills. ShoeBox Recycling also gives us a chance to connect with the people and places that receive our recycled shoes. By writing a SoleMate Note to include with your shoes, you can let their new owner know about where they came from, what they were used for, or even any special memories attached to them. In return, they can write back to us and we can make a SoleMate connection.

So start cleaning out your closets and start looking under your bed for gently used shoes. Every pair you recycle means extra funds for us, less landfill waste and the potential to connect us to a SoleMate!

For more information contact Allan Benish at abenish@aol.com and check out Community Recycling online at www.communityrecycling.biz.

You can drop off your shoes at the synagogue and place them in the box labeled "SHOES" in the lobby during regular office hour of 9:00AM to 3:00PM.

ROBERT NAGLER

Comments by Ed Mendlowitz

Bob will be missed. He was an integral part of Beth Ohr and the Men's Club. His friendship was genuine and his accomplishments many and varied. As part of the Congregation's Dinner Dance Committee he consistently was one of the top 3 major sellers of ads and also arranged for Mayor Jim Phillips to be our Man of the Year at our extremely successful dinner/dance in 2005. Bob served on the Temple's Board of Directors, and was instrumental in my becoming Men's Club president so I could rejoin the Temple Board.

He organized an annual car trip to Atlantic City after the Men's Club stopped running its bus trip. He also organized an investment club, a bi-weekly card game, and the weekly R.O.M.E.O.s lunch group. He was a regular at the Sunday Minyan and never missed simchas on Shabbos and served on the Men's Club board. He was the Beth Ohr Men's Club Man of the Year at the annual FJMC dinner in 2006.

His grandchildren—Erica and Matthew—became regulars when they visited Bob and were awarded "Honorary Men's Club" memberships. They even learned to blow the Shofar, with an assist from Rabbi Mishkin. Bob never tired about talking about his four grandchildren, Erica, Matthew, Zoey and Zachary, and his daughters Valerie and Jill and her husband.

Bob lived a full life and his many stories covered different stages of his experiences that included growing up in the Bronx in the shadow of Yankee Stadium and meeting all the players, playing in Gaelic Park, being a successful stock broker and hospital controller, and an all around great guy always looking for opportunities to help wherever he could.

Bob will be missed, but his imprint is deep and indelible. God Bless You, Bob. On this and the following page are some photos of Bob at his favorite Beth Ohr activities.
